Urolithin A

Main Benefits

- Urolithin A is a compound derived from its precursors, ellagic acid and ellagitannins, which are found naturally in edible plants like strawberries and pomegranates. Urolithin A is often transformed by gut-bacteria into this form.
- Urolithin A helps to support general longevity and anti-aging through muscle support and promoting mitochondrial health.

Main Cautions

- Urolithin A supplements are considered safe for adults when used according to the recommended serving instructions. In studies supplementing Urolithin A, there have not been notable side effects reported.
- Do not use this supplement without first consulting with your doctor if you are taking any medication or have any medical condition. There isn't sufficient available data to know whether Urolithin A is safe for pregnant or breastfeeding women.

Usage Tips

- A 1.0 cc measuring scoop is included. Two level scoops contains approximately one serving or approximately 50mg of Urolithin A. As a dietary supplement, take 1 serving up to 2 times per day. Start at the lower suggested quantity to assess response.
- The negative effects of Urolithin A are dependent on the amount taken. Use of a scale with 10mg/0.01g accuracy or better is highly recommended.
- Use of capsules, or mixing with tea, yogurt, apple sauce, or oatmeal may help make the powder easier to consume.
- This supplement is not intended to treat, diagnose, prevent, or cure any diseases. Consult your healthcare provider before use if you have a medical condition or if you are taking any prescription medications.
- It is safe to stack Urolithin A with other supplements, so long as the amount consumed does not exceed the suggested serving size.
- The benefits of Urolithin A are most effective when they are supported by a healthy diet and plenty of exercise.
